In a ceremony strikingly similar in many ways to today's ritual opening of a holy door, Alexander was carried in the gestatorial chair to the portico of St. A Spaniard in Italy, he was hard pressed to find such trustworthiness except from members of his own family; hence his patronage of them, though it is not to be denied that it was probably also for personal reasons. This led to massive popular demonstrations, often led by nuns whom riot police dared not attack.

After the hour of vespers, between six and seven o'clock a fever appeared and he was afflicted for years with a kidney ailment brought on by diabetes he was taken on June 19, to the Cardinal Rufino Santos Medical Center in San Juan, Metro Manila because of a slight but lingering fever.
