There, in the dark, in hiding. Shut in and disoriented. Just counting the time I feed. Then, I'll be waiting here again. Watching outside at the rain.

He got up into the cart, and looking at me, said,. "Ye munna stan here, sir. We shan't pass Whinmore Hall afore t'deevil brings a light."

It is in my daughter's sitting-room. After the establishment of the Hanoverian dynasty, the Whinmores of Whinmore Hall ceased to take any part in public affairs. The superstitious people will believe that you have outraged the ghost of your great-grandfather, who will become mischievous, in consequence.

Grasping the banister with one hand, and feeling for the unused pistol with the other, I descended the stairs. It sounded from the little room above, and it could not be the voice of that fair girl, I felt sure. I'm not going to turn my face towards the deevil and his works.

This page was last edited on 11 September at I saw her that evening, and forgot Ralph Thirlston, the old Hall, its ghosts and mysterious lights.
