It never really alludes to these things, it never lets you figure out anything for yourself, it just tells you. The torture that was done to Jacob was truly disgusting as . They could be vampires. This is a well written horror novel. This is a well written horror novel. I felt fullfilled at the end and that it came to a good close. They've come after Rachel before and she narrowly escaped. The lack of feeling behind the dialogue left the characters blank. While some people might think that's bad, to someone who's read and watched a lot of horror, it's refreshing to really get some nitty gritty horror instead of main-stream treading the water. He called it the Sad House and the story behind it was interesting.
