Making the Case for Farmland Protection 3. PlotkinSE
Cultivating opportunity: Biological Conservation—
Yougetpertinentandusefulinformationandanalysis. The loss of farmland is likened to a loss of historical legacy for many towns. Two of the greatest barriers include the high price that farm property usually commands and the steady conversion of farmland to non-agricultural uses e. The group found that from todeveloped land increased by almost a factor of ten while there was a "significant reduction in non-forested open space land [defined as agricultural land, pastureland, and other open land] in Hanover.
