Sorry, one or the other, but the attempt at both ways stretches the believability to unparalleled heights. Instead, everyone acts like he is being a selfish jerk for not wanting to kill his own beloved wife.

You might as well buy the lot because once you start this series, you will need it. He starts to see a kindred soul who has had to shun physical contact as much as he. His destiny is to meet a woman of water cool enough to handle his heat. Happy that there was a quick recap chapter at the beginning as it's been a while since I read the previous books.

Still not up to where I will be following anything else she prints. I even had problems speaking this book have been the worst of a This book is another disappointed after the awesome part 6.
