Among some of the traditionally culturally influential countries using it are Bulgaria, Serbia, Russia, Ukraine. Thank you, Luis, and the DL Team for releasing all six courses to the incubator. Theyouselectanothercourse. They both share the same vocalism and the vowel shifts see below that make both the languages stand apart from most other Kipchak and Oghuz Turkic languages. Now I keep refreshing the courses page to see when they show up there-- I'm really curious to see what graphics they've chosen for each language.
