There were shelves filled with books about work-life balance and op-ed pages devoted to ''mommy wars'' and ''opting. It also kind of insinuates and prepares the reader that no one can really look great after pregnancy unless they are a celebrity with a crazy and expensive workout schedule. Good for thoughts on self-acceptance and what messages you pass on to your kids. TriviaAboutDoesThisPregnan From stretch marks and intimacy concerns to hair loss, these are valid concerns that should be addressed with honesty and acceptance.
