For that reason he was pitied, even despised, by most of the other boys, but to me it made him an object of envy. And then Esther Freud is quoted as saying Wyndham "gives us an odd sideways but utterly convincing glimpse into a lost world. I am so glad I was able to get this taste of Jennifer's story. Back in high school, I discovered a series of books called the O'Malley series books in the series. But as a girl who knows nothing of this interesting family, Jennifer's story was the perfect place to start.
