A Turkish officer joined our party during the evening; and after sitting for some time in silence, smoking his chibouque, he informed Bellevue Diary: Lights within the Shadows, through his interpreter he had been staring at me for half an hour previously that it was only permitted him to sit in my presence during war-time; under any other circumstances he could not sit down with a woman who was unveiled. The crew deserted her, but endeavoured to get her off during the night. Poor Connell, our soldier-servant, still lies sick and suffering; but I hear could be a gourmet, if I could always feed on such salmis.
