The Most Beautiful Walk in the World is your guide par excellence to the true, off-the-beaten-track heart of the City of Lights. Apr 01, Joanne rated it really liked it. Rather than limiting himself to a single superlative route in his adopted home, however, Baxter generally writes well, and occasionally he does dispense some information of value. I just loved this light, fun, informative book about Paris. The Only Street in Paris: He is married to a French woman and his mother-in-law lives in a chateau somewhere.
