Now, why did I love this book so much? The whole book feels like a set-up for a case of misunderstanding, not taking into account at all that they have to have had some kind of real relationships with each other or with God in the past. This is the first Karen Kingsbury book I ever read, and from the first chapter I love Karen Kingsbury books and I love ordering from e bay. I picked up this book at a bookstore on the sale rack.
