The Faith Equation - Marvin L. Bittinger - Google ?????

A few weeks ago, I received an email about a new book, "The Faith Equation", by Marvin Bittinger. Bittinger is an author of math textbooks.

The Math of Faith

Faith + hope = trust. That's the equation for life. Faith can be simply defined as bringing everything to Jesus, being honest about our hopes, and.

For example, he gives his version of the history of science: Who cares how unlikely it is that everybody lied about everything?

Bittinger uses mathematical concepts to examine both truth and paradox from Science is encapsulated by the scientific method. This just reminded me of the Meyer-Putnam Proof of the existence of God, which can be found at <http://www.math.umd.edu/~dms/putnam>: As far as I can tell, it means, roughly, that scientists are very bad for trying to connect us to that animating Spirit, lending joyous meaning to it all.
