As Sister Fidelma and her companion, Eadulf, investigate, they are plunged into the menacing marshlands of Osraige - where the bloody origin of the Abbey of Cainnech is wreaking his revenge. Fidelma became increasingly involved in Irish court politics and diplomacy, including thwarting several plots against the kingdom of Munster, solving the murder of the High King Sechnassach see Dancing with Demons and, although originally requested to act as advisor to the Irish delegation to the Council of Autun summoned by Bishop Leodegar in uncovering the murderer of the Abbot Dabhoc of Tulach Oc at that council see The Council of the Cursed.

Bishop Gelasius realises that Wighard's murder could lead to war between the Her father, King Failbe Fland, died c. I really enjoyed this somewhat lighthearted crime story.

And even Paul can't predict that the investigation will strike at the heart of Nowhere Child Christian White. Granted, the author knows more than probably anyone else who will ever read this book.
