It really help me think about my ideas and what I believe and put into words the theologically ideas I've been thinking.

This book is a wonderful work, addressing what it really means to be gracious, what it means to embody the graciousness and loving kindness found in Jesus that we are called to emulate, often in contrast to the way Christianity, and Christians, can so often be so ungracious. I need being saved.

Published12monthsago.So you believe God will save every person, now what? I do not know if he is correct or not in his belief but I think most of the outcomes in the Christian lifestyle he desires, which he attributes to Universal Salvation, can exist without having to take that particular step in faith.
