I wonder if they knew that it was their beautiful energy and positivity that had brought this little scene to a head. Street artists have different opinions about the matter, since they belong to diverse generations and backgrounds. The atmosphere of that shared experience will stay with me forever. What a wonder. The positivity and excitement they brought to the atmosphere was contagious and soon a crowd was gathering to listen. Furthermore, the best time to busk is a beautiful day in which the weather is sunny and people will surely spend time outdoors. I set up with my back to a pretty fountain, in between two noisy tram lines and that is why many artists choose to perform in places such as Trafalgar square or Tate modern.
