Slaves also did not have it so great, and that becomes clear in this work. David rated it liked it Feb 16, Soon after becoming emperor, Justinian put in train the codification of the law. It seems pretty silly to give this a rating, but it's got some good stuff. Don't have an account? Emma Priesendorf rated it liked it Jan 24, Home About Help Search. Brought to its finest flowering by the Emperor Justinian, this book for roman law class in my undergrad years, where I didn't read the book. He could have thought that the editors would insist on other areas that are not so antiquated.
