There were several moments in this book that had me clutching my pearls, simply because I am not used to reading about such things but Daniel Black made it work!

This is a beautifully crafted story with amazing characters main and secondary. I made you a girl. They gave her a new name, Paul. I decided not to let that discourage me. Her brothers' love for her was stronger than their jealousy, and she had always felt loved, unique, precious, per Family drama in an African-American family living in a small town, early PERFECT PEACE late 20th century.
