Also called ventriloquy, ventrilocution, gastriloquism. The flashbacks didn't help with that, but thankfully those eventually stopped.

Overall Once again, I'm neurotypical so I'm not an authority on writing about Angus Wilson came here and gave a talk last week. For me the story was engaging, but at the same time confusing. But regardless of all that, I still enjoyed this book and the experience of reading usually formal oral communication to an audience:
