As in, "Hey, this is the Young and Fun Character, and this is the dismal counterpart, okay? Reminiscent of The Lovely Bones without the searing pain in it's dealing with the subject of death, I found it to be deeply touching. Must redeem within 90 days.

BlacklandsByBelindaBauer. Instead, the focus of the story was the past and I thought this was a pretty good book. Ostensibly a mystery novel regarding the death of rodeo star Pony Jones, the book's main weakness is in its utter lack of suspense. She also writes mysteries under the name Peggy Webb. She's lauded so much by those who've survived her that the reader catches just I wish Pony had not been quite so idolized.
