The 15th century is better known in all three regions, but the last third of the century in Catalonia has been somewhat ignored. Mario Del Treppo stated that the number of journeys between Catalonia and Liguria had dropped by half throughout the course of the century, from toalthough the ships could hold more cargo, but they did not decrease in Valencia. ThecaseofTarragonaisagoodexample:In Acre there was a small colony of Barcelona merchants who intervened in the dissentions among the Latins between and Thus, mercenary military forces, many of them Christian, were assembled, and new governing apparatuses were set up with tax administrators, secretaries and legal scholars.
