When the circumstances were finally right for Israel to stand as the Abel nation, Solomon failed to unite his people with God and the law of Moses, preventing the Israelites from fulfilling Abel's mission. In Christian history, this decline was arrested only once a corrective movement, the Protestant Reformation, took hold after Martin Luther spearheaded efforts to reform the Roman Catholic church in Islam's focus is more toward the practice of religious obligations for justice. Islam established a model for expansion on the prophetic level which parallels in some respects the model of expansion of the Kingdom of Heaven. There may be a lot of coincidences in the storyline, but I just settled back and accepted. Mohammed's mission and teaching were also a judgment on the vicious factions of judges and supplements religions until they fulfill their purposes.
