He intensely disliked the French whom he accused of killing and eating his father. Following an appointment as surveyor general of customs in southern American ports, Dinwiddie became Lieutenant Governor of Virginia, and featured as such in William Makepeace Thackeray 's nineteenth-century historical novel The Virginians:

The war changed economic, political, governmental, and social relations. In the spring of Paul Marin de la Malgue was given command of a 2,000 man force of Troupes de la Marine and Indians. In open conflict re-started in North America at the Forks of the Ohio. In Virginia colonists sailed north from Jamestown to destroy a French settlement on Mt. On June 21, the French war party attacked the trading center at Pickawillany, of the two battles reached England in August.
